the Enquiry Officer and the appellant was given reasonable opportunity to cross examine the witness during the course of enquiry. He failed to do so. With regard to appointment of Non- technical officer as enquiry officer it is very clear that the charges framed against the appellant is not relating to technical aspects. In the first instance, the Disciplinary Authority imposed a punishment of dismissal from service. On appeal, the Board reduced the punishment to that of stoppage of two increments with cumulative effect considering that there was no financial loss and also taking a lenient view.

6. Accordingly, the appeal petition is dismissed.

7. The Executive Officer, Tirumala Tirupati Devasthnams shall take necessary action in the matter, accordingly.
